Stella Maris

"All men of every race, condition and age, since they enjoy the dignity of a human being, have an inalienable right to an education that is in keeping with their ultimate goal, their ability, their sex, and the culture and tradition of their country, and also in harmony with their fraternal association with other peoples in the fostering of true unity and peace on earth."

paths which have imbued us with the spirit of Christ, as well as assisted us in the perfecting of our human person, the good of society, and the building of a world that is more human.

ADMINISTRATION

A true education aims at the formation of the human person in the pursuit of his ultimate end . . .

An air of contentment fills the room as Robert Soley, Donna Allen, Robert McDonald, and Carolyn Babinneau listen attentively to the inspiring words of Counsel imparted by Rev. Father R. Mailloux. Through his fatherly understanding of teenage problems our consultations with him have proved most rewarding.

REV. ROBERT MAILLOUX, S.M.

PASTOR

We, the graduating Class of 1966, wish to express to our pastor, Rev. Robert J. Mailloux, S.M., our deepest appreciation for his selfless and untiring efforts in leading us to our eternal goal. Through his many kindly deeds, countless fatherly words, and innumerable generous acts he has planted the tiny mustard seed of Christian Education in our lives. To him we say a warm and heartfelt "thank you."

To Know Mary and ---

We, at Notre Dame, are privileged to have as priests, men whose lives are dedicated to the betterment of those with whom they come in contact. Their great interest in each and everyone of us is manifested by the time and energy spent in assisting us in our spiritual and social needs.

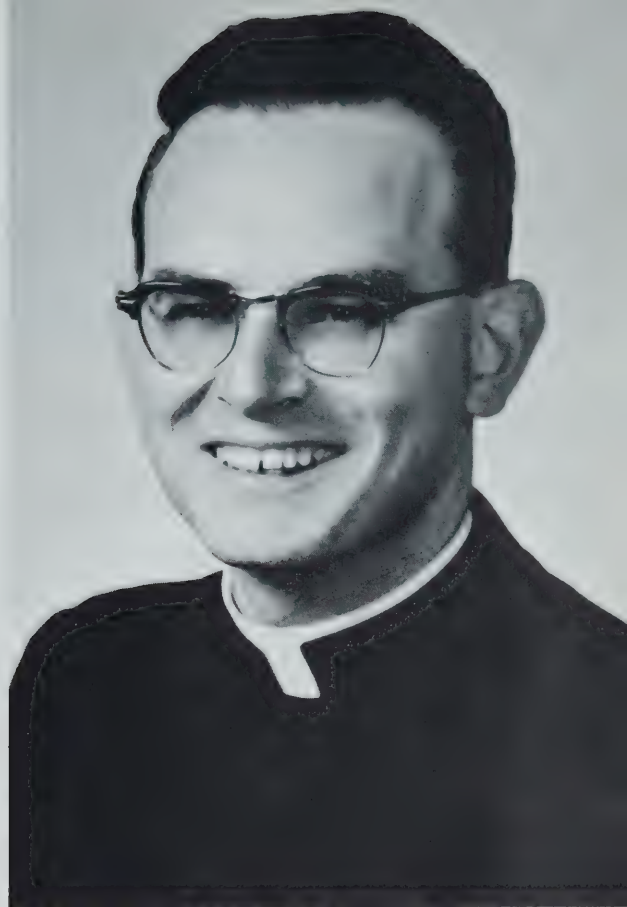

REV. MARCEL LAJOIE, S.M.

It is with sincere, heartfelt appreciation that we pause to acknowledge the curate whom we all love for his kindness, understanding, consideration, and encouragement. His unpretentious manner and kind-hearted personality shine forth to enlighten our paths, as his frolicsome moods radiate the atmosphere and bring happiness to all who know him.

To Make Her Loved

REV. DONALD S. GAGNE, S.M.

In acknowledging its Athletic and CYO Director, Rev. Donald S. Gagne, S.M., the Class of '66 wishes to express its appreciation to one whose personal interest in youth is undying, whose understanding of its problems is sincere, and whose love for the cause of Christ is unfailing. May his unwavering efforts in fostering the ideals of Christian morality bear much fruit.

Religion

Through the diligent efforts of Father Mailloux, the Senior Class has come to a fuller understanding of their religion. He has instilled in us the knowledge to cope with life's daily problems and has laid the foundations necessary for us to fulfill our roles as adult Christians in this modern world.

Linda Clark and Judy Murphy find it profitable to keep abreast with the recent schemas promulgated at Vatican Council II. A prominent feature in this issue was the coverage of Pope Paul's visit to the U. N.

A Christian education has as its principal purpose . . .

Dennis Roux finds much food for thought as Sister Gabrielle Maria, our guidance counsellor, explains the possibilities of a future in a technical career.

WHERE TO?

Showing interest in their future careers Eileen O'Neill, Thomas Carroll are found probing through the many college brochures displayed in our guidance room.

Exhausting the source material available for their research paper, these seniors, Paul Rochon, Linda Wamboldt, Patricia Cryan, Robert Soley spend precious hours in the library preparing outlines, writing their first draft, etc.

What is it that brings smiles to Ann Walsh and Geraldine Flinn? Could it be the happy arrival of term papers marked with an A+ (for effort)?

English

to develop with special care the intellectual faculties . . .

Maureen Alford, Maureen Duffy and Lawrence Hurley find it profitable to use the SRA Reading Lab to increase their vocabulary and reading skills in preparation for their college boards.

It must be SPORTS ILLUSTRATED that is responsible for Donald McNeill's and Dennis Roux's long attention span this time!

College prep students are engrossed in the intricacies of the preparation for oxygen. Throughout the year these students have striven to learn the chemistry of matter by experimentation, thus making their knowledge thoroughly scientific for as R. B. Braithwaite stated, "The peaks of science may appear to be floating in the clouds, but their foundations are in the hard facts of experience."

Science

Investigating the nature of crystallization Linda Wamboldt, Dennis Roux, James Carr, and Lucille Pinard are shown checking on the progress of their home-made crystals.

to deepen the realization of the harmony of faith and science . . .

Our Biological study unfolded the mysteries of the constituents of life. Assembling a replica of DNA, the molecule of life, are Thomas Carroll, Kathleen Boyle, and Lawrence Hurley.

Donald McNeill futilely attempts to instruct Maureen Alford on the basics of marine life. However the subject matter doesn't seem to hold her interest. I wonder what does?

to hand down

Perplexed and puzzled, Maureen Alford ponders over the possible uses of the basic trigonometric functions. Don't worry, Maureen, it'll come--eventually.

Mathematics

Donna Allen and Denis Roux seem to have varying opinions regarding the geographical localities engulfed by Communism today. Kathy Boyle and Richard Viglione sit passively not knowing whose views to support.

History

he cultural legacies of previous generations and

With surnames like Simard and Soley (respectfully Joyce and Bob) the French language takes on an international twist!

A greeting! A smile! A welcome! (and an opportunity to seek extra help in French between classes) are exchanged by Sister Georges Francoise and Theresa Nolin.

French

Sister Beatrice Gerard dictates to commercial students Patricia Cryan, Christine Theriault, Richard Fitzgerald and Linda Clark as their minds and hands quickly transform her words into shorthand notes.

Commercial

Joyce Simard presents a very efficient picture as Carolyn Babineau well-poised has her tally her worksheet totals.

Economics

Teacher for a day and satisfied with his work is Kevin Coleman in Economics class. Equally happy with the results are Eileen O'Neill, and Ann Walsh.

Did you make it, Gayle? Theresa Nolin asks as she and Donna Allen check the bulletin board for test results. Their goal as seniors is the Vocational Competency Certificate awarded to those students who display progression in the commercial subjects.

Fingers that are adept in the world of basketball are awkward when it comes to the world of typing. Twice a week our college bound seniors assemble to learn the skills of typing. Practice makes perfect, boys!

To attain a position in the business world, one must acquaint herself with modern business machines such as the IBM Executary on which Geraldine Flinn displays her proficiency.

Underclassmen

Juniors

The Junior College Preparatory students exit happily from the lab after performing an interesting experiment. Now they venture to English class to discuss Hawthorne.

Freshmen

The serious demeanor of our freshmen belies the concentration needed in embarking on a high school career.

Ou allons nous? Sr. Georges Francoise controls the confusion of changing classes as she directs the Freshmen on their way.

Sophomores find it profitable to make wise use of the study periods allotted each day. They realize that this time can be a great aid in lessening the burden of homework. Some find it easier to accomplish their written assignments such as Biology and Geometry while others prefer to study French and Latin II.

During the opening days of school the Freshmen were really engrossed in their studies. Algebra and History seemed to be among their favorite. We wonder how proficient they are now in speaking fluent French and Latin? Does this excessive study-prevailing mood still enhance their young minds?

Study Period

Clearing the path for a better understanding of the business world, the Junior Commercial students make Typing, Shorthand, and Office Practice a part of their daily routine.

H.

T. B. or not T. B. is the question being settled by Mrs. Doolin, R. N., for our "physically fit" seniors.

Dr. Frank Downey believes in the old adage--an ounce of prevention (in this case two cc's of serum) is worth a pound of cure for his secretary Joyce Simard.

Notre Dame is deeply indebted to Mr. Francis Convy whose untiring efforts and diligent work are responsible for the graduation chorale.

ACTIVITIES

Blessing of Class Rings

Finally the time has arrived for the blessing and bestowal of the coveted class rings by our pastor, Fr. Mailloux. As others proceed to the altar, Lawrence Hurley's and Patricia Cryan's eyes are affixed upon their own symbols of the undying bond that ties them to their Alma Mater.

Robert Degou looks on as Richard Stafford reverently kisses his miraculous medal.

Smiles dominate the faces of the senior boys as they proudly exhibit their newly blessed class rings. Is there hidden sorrow in the true meaning this holds for them?

Lucille Pinard proudly displays her recently acquired class ring to Father Lajoie who pauses a moment to admire it.

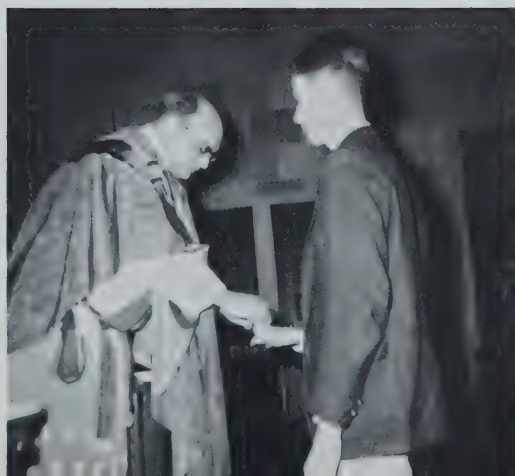

REV. LEO BOURDEAU, S.M.

REV. GEORGE OSSMANN, S.M.

Stella Maris Staff

Patricia Cryan utilizes her skills in preparing the copy.

Editor-in-Chief, Linda Wamboldt, has proven to be an indispensable asset to the staff.

Through the tireless efforts of Mother Celine Helena and the photographic excellence of Mr. Tisei our yearbook has progressed annually.

Combining their efforts and talents, Carol Martin, James Carr, Theresa Nolin, Maureen Duffy realize the amount of work necessary to produce a commendable yearbook.

Vesuvius Staff

Sports Editor, Paul Rochon, studies the style of current sports writers to better understand and evaluate his own technique.

Joyce Simard and Linda Wamboldt prepare captions for the next issue of the Vesuvius.

Probers

During the year projects, workshops, and lectures afford our Probers the opportunity to delve into many of the varied topics modern science has at its command.

The world of microorganism reveals itself under the microscope, while Maureen Duffy and Joyce Simard scrutinize the diagrams they have prepared for their Boston College panel on enzymes.

Student Activities

Leadership, initiative and dependability are the ingredients for a good student councillor. Featured with their moderator, Sister Rita Theresa, are N. D.'s representatives: Lawrence Hurley, Richard Fitzgerald, Donna Allen, Maureen Duffy, Joyce Simard and Patricia Cryan.

Student Council

It's a man's world when it comes to Student Council President, Bob Soley giving orders to Linda Wamboldt, secretary.

Gayle Pessotti, secretary; Lawrence Hurley, delegate; Rev. Donald Gagne, s.m., director; Carol Martin, vice-president, Robert McDonald, president.

Convention Bound!

C.Y.O. on the march

Among the CYO'ers attending the National Convention in Chicago were these ten smiling juniors and seniors, namely Gayle Pessotti, Linda Wamboldt, Robert McDonald, Judith Murphy, Carol Martin, Donna Allen, Lawrence Hurley, Gail Scannell, Joyce Simard, Virginia Lange, and their director, Fr. Donald Gagne, s.m.

Cavalierettes

First row: Joyce Simard, Maureen Alford, Carol Martin, Jeanne Gervais, Judith Murphy. Second row: Maureen Duffy, Lucille Wagner, Kathleen Boyle, Karen Cully, and Gail Scannell.

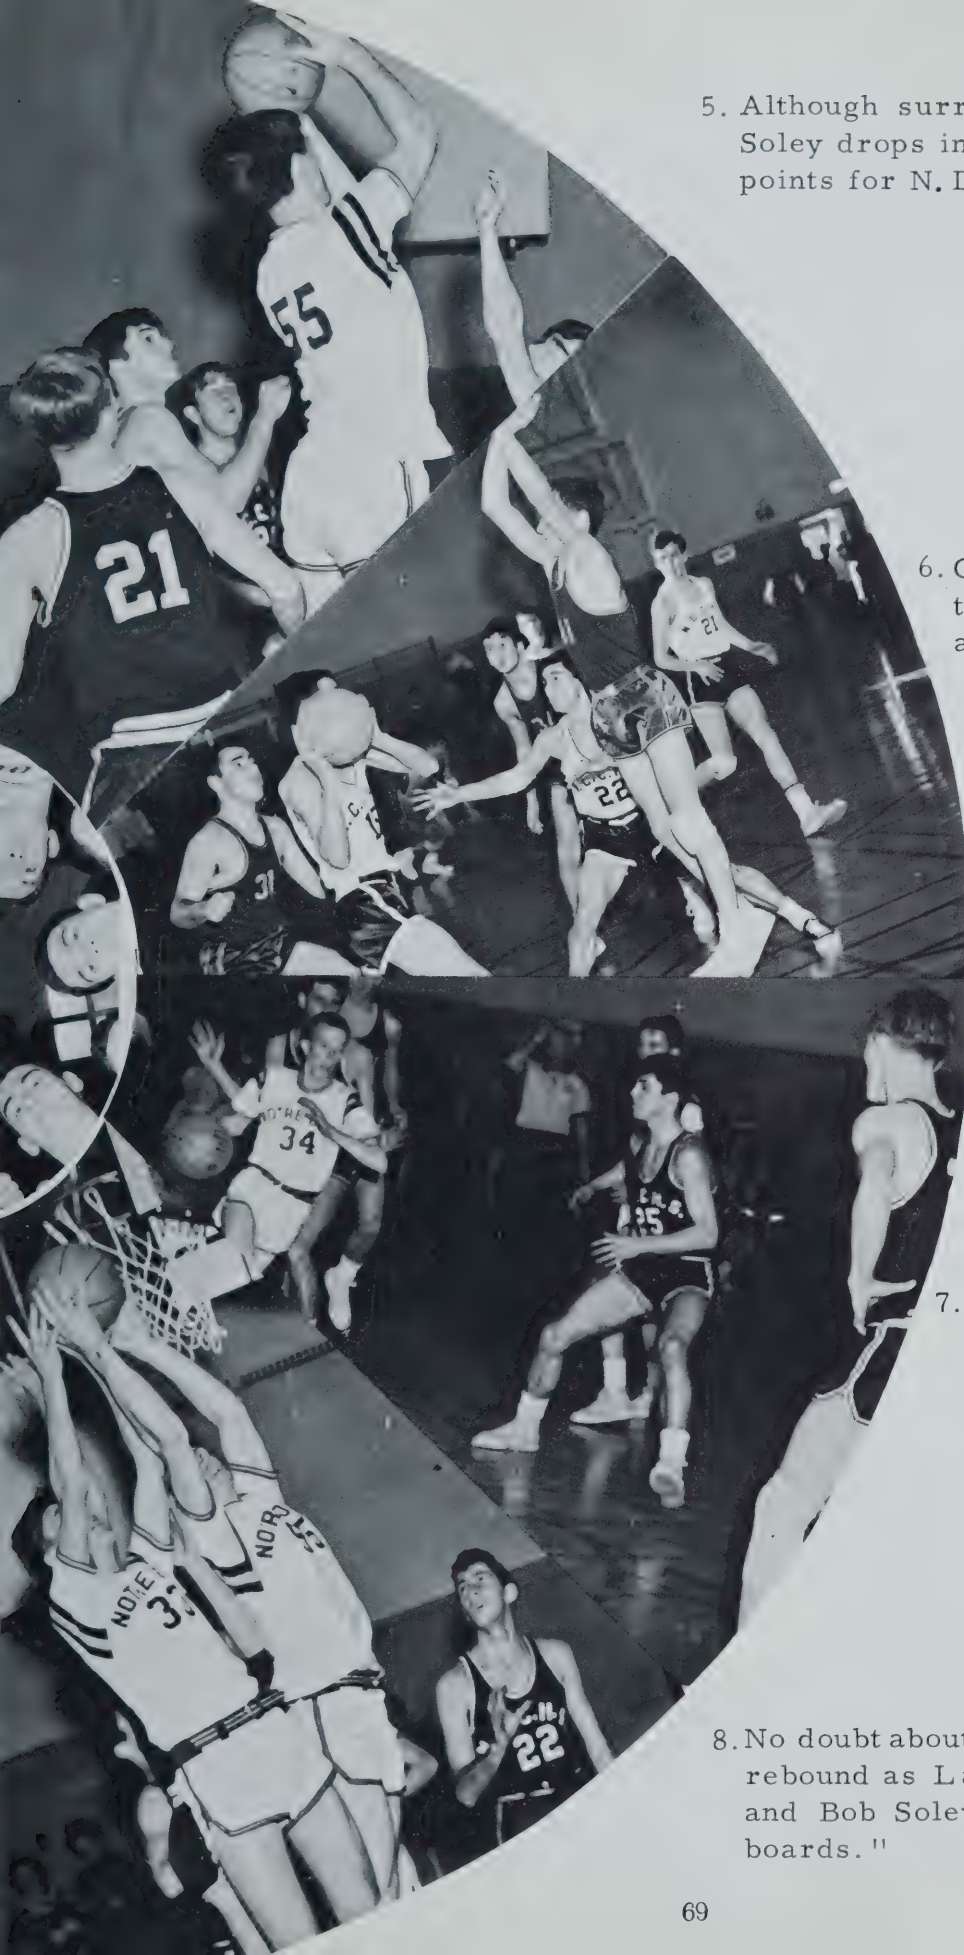

1. Don Gilreath controls the top--one of the "few" bright spots for the Alumni at the annual game!

2. Heads up! It must be a possible rebound that has Joe Bernard's undivided attention.

3. A loose ball! But no one seems to want it as four Cavaliers converge on the play.

4. Bob McDonald flies through the air with the greatest of ease to intercept errant pass from the hands of an opponent.

5. Although surrounded, Bob Soley drops in another two points for N. D. !

6. Our future stars, the J.V.'s taking charge in a contest against our arch-rivals.

7. Dick Fitzgerald, our most valuable player, has no speed limits as he drives in to score for N. D. !

8. No doubt about who has that rebound as Larry Hurley and Bob Soley, "clear the boards."

Before you accept that first job . . .

Look over your employer
as carefully
as he does you

What's the Company like anyway? Would I be proud to work there? Reputation for square dealing with employees? Pleasant surroundings?

Will I be working with others my own age? Are they friendly? Do they socialize after hours?

Will the boss be reasonable? Appreciate good, hard work, but won't explode if I make a mistake?

Will I make a decent week's pay? Have a chance for raises, advancement, more responsibility? How about fringe benefits?

Is the work challenging? I had what it takes to get through high school. Will they give me a chance to use my brains?

Note: Many young men and women in this area can answer "Yes" to these questions. They work for New England Telephone Company . . . New England's largest employer.

Why not talk with our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.

New England Telephone

The Catholic school, while it is open, as it must be, to the situation of the contemporary world, prepares its students for service in the spread of the Kingdom of God, so that by leading an exemplary apostolic life they become a saving leaven in the human community.
